60 PLUS ASSOCIATION, INC.'S RESPONSE TO MS. SORENSON'S MOTION TO STRIKE

In response to Ms. Linda Sorenson's Motion to Strike the Supplemental Testimony of 60 Plus Association, Inc's witness Matthew Kandrach, 60 Plus Association states that apparently there was a misunderstanding regarding whether counsel for 60 Plus Association would send the supplemental testimony to Ms. Sorenson before filing it. The matter was discussed at the hearing by Ms. Sorenson and counsel for 60 Plus Association, whether it was necessary to send Ms. Sorenson the supplemental testimony before filing. From the discussion, counsel for 60 Plus Association understood Ms. Sorenson did not think it was necessary to send it to her before it was filed. After giving the matter some thought, counsel for 60 Plus Association reached the same conclusion that it was not necessary.

Mr. Kandrach's supplemental testimony was responsive to Ms. Sorenson's questions, and the responses to Ms. Sorenson's questions would not have changed whether they were filed before or after they were sent to Ms. Sorenson.

WHEREFORE, inasmuch as Ms. Sorenson has moved to strike Mr. Kandrach's responses to questions posed by Ms. Sorenson, 60 Plus Association, Inc. does not resist Ms. Sorenson's Motion to Strike.

Respectfully submitted,

BELIN McCORMICK, P.C.
