

< Back to resultsMore like this >

BRIEF: Binyamin Zomer appointed head of Noble Energy Israel

McClatchy - Tribune Business News [Washington] 09 Sep 2014.

Full textDetailsTranslateTurn on search term navigationHide highlighting

Sept. 09--Binyamin (Bini) Zomer has been appointed Noble Energy Israel Country Manager and will assume the position from October 1. Zomer will replace Lawson Freeman who becomes VP Business Development in Noble Energy's headquarters in Houston, Texas.

Zomer has in the past been selected as one of "Globes" 40 most promising young people. Zomer immigrated to Israel in 2010 to become Noble Energy's Director of Corporate Affairs in Israel.

Before joining Noble Energy, Zomer was AIPAC's Deputy Director of Policy and Government Affairs for the Washington based Israel lobbying organization. He has also served as legal advisor to former Oklahoma Senator Don Nickles. Zomer is a graduate in Political Science from the University of Texas and Washington University Law School in St. Louis.

Credit: Globes, Tel Aviv, Israel

Word count: 129

_(c)2014 the Globes (Tel Aviv, Israel) Visit the Globes (Tel Aviv, Israel) at www.globes.co.il/serveen/globes/nodeview.asp?fid=942 Distributed by MCT Information Services

More like this

Related items

Copyright © 2016 ProQuest LLC.