Hi Crystal

Unfortunately, no one from the FrackNation team would be able to come. Let me know when you set the the time, I will wait for your laurel to start promoting the screening.

Many thanks,

Hello - We are currently designing our own laurels. You can use a generic laurel until we can send you new ones. I should be able to get them to you after Christmas.

Is there anyone associated with the film that could come to the festival?

The 1:00 p.m. Sunday time is about 90% confirmed. If no one from the film can come to the festival I may have to rethink my arrangement because there will be a lot of dead time in this particular theater without a Q&A or panel.

Hello Crystal

Thank you for your email, we are delighted to be selected for your festival. Unfortunately, it won't be possible for us to attend the festival, but we'll make sure to promote the screening via our social media. Do you have selection laurel image I could use for that? Also, is 1:00 on Sunday, January 26 confirmed?

Kind Regards,

Hello,

I am wondering if you had time to review the information in my previous e-mail. Do you think we could get a confirmation from someone to attend the festival? Travel and lodging will be covered by the festival.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Brittany,

We are accepting FRACKNATION to the 2014 Frozen River Film Festival. A reminder that the dates are January 22 - 26. I am attaching the official film acceptance form to the 2014 festival. Would you please fill out the information and make note of important dates? Here's a quick checklist:

- Film trailer
- High Resolution Image
- Film Description
- HD Digital File (mpeg4) for exhibition

We are interested in having you or someone from your team attend the festival! At this time we have your film scheduled at 1:00 on Sunday, January 26. The schedule is still being finalized and this date and time could change. We will notify you when the schedule is set. Are you interested in coming to the festival? We will offer compensation for travel and lodging in Winona. We invite you to come and stay for the VIP Reception and Award Ceremony listed in the acceptance contract. If you can stay overnight we will put you in contact with our travel and lodging coordinator to finalize the details.

The topic of this film is very controversial in our town. We would also like to ask whoever attends the festival to sit on a panel after the film. We can discuss this in more detail after we confirm some of the travel and lodging. I look forward to exhibiting this film and hearing more about your thoughts on a panel.
