Kristina Moore's Summary

I am a senior policy professional with over 13 years of policy experience on Capitol Hill. In that time, I have focused my energy and passion into conducting vigorous Congressional oversight. My work is reflected in several high profile investigations, including Toyota's "sticky gas pedal"; the Administration's response to the BP oil spill, and most recently uncovering the layers of waste, fraud, and abuse at the Environmental Protection Agency, as revealed by the antics of CIA fraudster and EPA bureaucrat, John Beale. I am passionate about the rights and responsibilities of American citizens and an advocate of the free market.
