Summary

Public affairs specialist with advanced understanding of the energy industry, including oil and gas ("fracking"), coal, and petrochemicals. Skilled communicator with extensive on-the-record experience, including print, online, TV and radio. Strong background in policy research and grassroots advocacy. Numerous working relationships with the media, industry, trade associations, and Capitol Hill.

Experience

Senior Director

FTI Consulting
December 2014 – Present (1 month) | Dallas/Fort Worth Area

FTI Consulting is a global business advisory firm that provides multidisciplinary solutions to complex challenges and opportunities. My chief role is team lead and national spokesman for Energy In Depth, a research and public education program of the Independent Petroleum Association of America (IPAA). I manage six field teams across the United States, with a focus on grassroots engagement and media relations. I also advise clients in a variety of industries, including coal, refining, and LNG exports.

Manager of Policy Research

American Solutions

August 2009 – May 2011 (1 year 10 months)

One of the largest national grassroots organizations, American Solutions develops and advances public policies that will make America the safest, freest, and most prosperous country in the world. My area of emphasis was energy policy, particularly federal rules impacting the coal industry (CWA, CAA, and NESHAP) and regulations limiting access to oil and gas development.

Research Assistant (Newt Gingrich)

American Enterprise Institute

January 2008 – July 2009 (1 year 7 months)

The American Enterprise Institute is a community of scholars and supporters committed to expanding liberty, increasing individual opportunity, and strengthening free enterprise. AEI pursues these unchanging ideals through independent thinking, open debate, reasoned argument, facts, and the highest standards of research and exposition.

Research Intern

Claremont Institute

June 2006 – August 2006 (3 months)

The mission of the Claremont Institute is to restore the principles of the American Founding to their rightful, preeminent authority in our national life. These principles are expressed most eloquently in the Declaration of Independence, which proclaims that "all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights."
