

APPENDIX 5

Verbatim Answers to Burleigh County Survey Questions

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
1	Read them in the news. Same thing over and over again. Why do they have to go under the water? Why can't they go over?	Yes	They crossing the line or go beyond the line. We've got laws. Just can't walk into a business place. Protesting inside the capitol doing the prayers and such.
2	I think they are not Americans. I'm an American and they're trying to tear our country apart. I'm a WWII veteran and these people should be locked up. I'm 96 years of age.	Yes	Well, they claim that law enforcement abuse them.
3	Um, that the pipeline was supposed to go through Bismarck but was rerouted to the Indian Reservation. Army Corps of Engineers say it was unacceptable the risks to go through Bismarck.	Yes	They did nothing wrong but the government says they broke the law.
4	Where do you want to start? Heard everything from both sides of the story.	Yes	Well, there is so much. Several arrested downtown, post office, clashes between police and protesters south of Mandan. Lockdown of schools in town.
5	Been hearing negative info. Destroying property.	Yes	Oh, read a lot about it. Burning bridges, closing roads, been arrested in malls in Bismarck, Burned some equipment from the pipeline company.
6	It's not a thing to do.	No	N/A
7	All kinds of stuff. Both protesters and police sides of stories. protesters peaceful / not peaceful and all sides.	Yes	Weren't acting peacefully, trespassing so were arrested.
8	I'm kinda neutral. Bad players on both sides.	Yes	They have to do with... a couple here and there anytime there is a clash.
9	Just that the police are trying their best to diffuse the protests. protesters are trying to get supplies to them.	Yes	Mostly reading about them when they were tying themselves to equipment. Workers from DAPL are scared because they don't want to get hurt. protesters are trying to get their point across but I also get the other side which wants to move the oil. The Native Americans from ND don't want the problems but Native Americans from outside ND are causing the most trouble.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
1	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Well, I just listen; sometimes I don't say nothing. But we agreed both sides should sit down and come to an agreement.	No	N/A
2	Yes	Yes	No	No	Talked about the fact that they are not American.	No	N/A
3	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Whether they (others) have agreed w/pipeline or the protesters.	No	N/A
4	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Most people in area are not thrilled about destruction of property. Mostly negative news about the protests. Lockdown of schools. I am an educator.	No	N/A
5	No	Yes	No	Yes	Usually about what's been destroyed... not much around here. Not a single good thing about them.	No	N/A
6	No	No	No	No	N/A	No	N/A
7	Yes	No	No	No	Ask them what they have seen since I get most from social media.	No	N/A
8	Yes	No	No	No	Just recognition that it is happening.	No	N/A
9	Yes	Yes	No	No	Actually , one of my family members lives less than a mile in St. Anthony ND. Thy were scared because of illegal protesters/activity. They couldn't leave their home.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
1	No	N/A	No	N/A
2	No	N/A	No	N/A
3	No	N/A	Yes	My friend's husband has been sent to help the police. He is military.
4	No	N/A	Yes	Second hand, friend of a friend
5	No	N/A	No	N/A
6	No	N/A	No	N/A
7	No	N/A	No	N/A
8	No	N/A	No	N/A
9	No	N/A	Yes	My aunt and uncle in St. Anthony.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
1	2. Probably guilty	Like I said, if you don't behave, there will be consequences like trespassing.
2	1. Definitely guilty	Because they are violating the American way of life. Progress should go on and the pipeline should go through.
3	3. probably not guilty	First Amendment Rights
4	2. Probably guilty	Because they are doing what they're being accused of.
5	2. Probably guilty	Um, well I won't say, most of those arrested are for trespassing or destruction of property.
6	Don't know	No answer.
7	Refused	No answer.
8	Don't know	N/A
9	1. Definitely guilty	Um, I mean some of them strapping themselves to construction equipment and defacing the equipment, hindering and preventing construction workers from working. It's just, just too much.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
1	Yes	N/A	What is the purpose of your questions?
2	No	N/A	No.
3	Yes	Someone given all the info should be able to give an unbiased opinion.	No.
4	Yes	If given both sides, I could be impartial.	No. I have to go. Should have been taken care of early on during meetings before the last 1100 feet of the pipeline
5	Yes	Because I've seen a lot of what's going on. Let's see. I don't know how to exactly respond.	There is not.
6	Don't know	N/A	No.
7	Yes	Because I like to view myself as an honest person and I can assess and look at evidence based on unbiased opinion.	No.
8	Don't know	N/A	Everybody's definition of fair is different. Nah. No. Nope.
9	Don't know	N/A	I mean, with my viewpoint, it's becoming too much in the middle, so I can't make an impartial judgement. I'm too much in the middle of it. Ah, not really.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
10	It's all a bunch of garbage. The news media go down and tell one side of the story - only the protesters' side.	Yes	One gal went to Federal Court for pulling a gun on a police officer. She is from a Denver tribe. Well, they come to town here and disrupt daily living.
11	I couldn't begin to tell you because I've heard so much from the news about the protesters.	Yes	I do know I think they were aggravating the situation down there. I wish it will come to an end and they will be closing down the Casino (Standing Rock tribe) because no one goes there much any more. I heard they couldn't make payroll the other day.
12	They are destroying our stuff but won't allow us to "destroy their land". I think the financial burden will be put back on the tribe.	Yes	Trespassing, aggravation, assault, destroying public and personal property, attempted murder, 3 shots fired.
13	Not going to say.	Yes	Um, I guess I think that there are a lot of protesters doing illegal things, vandalizers, killing animals, damaging property.
14	Just that they're being very disruptive and I don't appreciate. I don't necessarily agree with the pipeline.	Yes	You hear a lot of stories. They say it's peaceful but get many different versions. Some say they are professional protesters; some say the pipeline people are the problem. I don't know.
15	Well, I do hear about it on TV and Bismarck Tribune. Just against the pipeline and against the protesters in town. Mostly about them out-of-state.	Yes	Majority of them - 92 % - are people from out of state. There's a lot of aggression towards the cops and the cops are just defending themselves.
16	The tribe doesn't want the pipe to go under the water. The Army Corps stops the company from putting the pipe under the work(?) protesters by the thousands.	Yes	They are outside of public buildings and yelling at children that there is oil in their water. This is about greed and the railroads and the protesters are paid to promote a point of view.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
10	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	Why are they here in this cold weather and on Federal land where I can't go? I would get locked up.	No	N/A
11	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	We wish it would go away. I'm just tired of it all. They don't belong here.	No	N/A
12	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	How they are coming to our city, they are animals, they leave their stuff laying around. Had to drain the casino pool from protesters swimming in it.	No	N/A
13	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I guess in general the protesters are in the wrong. Would be good if they just stopped protesting. They've made their point already.	No	N/A
14	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Most people are upset about how long it's been going on.	No	N/A
15	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	It's crap. It's safer to use pipelines than trains or trucks and it's costing us a shitload of money to have it delayed.	No	N/A
16	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	People protesting are not from the area and ranchers can't get to their homes and are having fences cut and animals killed.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
10	No	N/A	No	N/A
11	No	N/A	No	N/A
12	No	N/A	Yes	People I work with, the wife and kids left their home from fear, they started blocking private roads and property.
13	No	N/A	Yes	I know a couple police officers that have been involved with some of them.
14	No	N/A	No	N/A
15	Yes	Because they live here. Half are from here and they are my people.	Yes	Same reason. They are my friends and neighbors.
16	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
10	1. Definitely guilty	They pay a fine, get released and they go and do it again. The are getting paid to protest. I heard they get $1200 a week. They're professional protesters. Checks are from Burlington Railroad.
11	1. Definitely guilty	Because they are instigators, rebel rousers, that's all they do in life. They expect someone to feed them or pay them. It's their life, it's what they do in life. They just move around causing trouble.
12	1. Definitely guilty	Documentation.
13	2. Probably guilty	My assumption is that the police wouldn't arrest someone unless they were suspected of committing a crime.
14	Don't know	I don't know , it's situation by situation and most arrested, if not all, outsiders and white
15	1. Definitely guilty	Unlike what the media says, police are very tolerant. Media lies about them. Facebook shows ten seconds of an event and takes it out of context.
16	2. Probably guilty	It's about greed - not about water or religion. Pipelines are faster but they cut out the railroads and the railroads don't want the pipeline. They are paying people to make it go away.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
10	No	N/A	No.
11	Yes	I could be fair but would have to excuse myself because of my age.	I wish it would go away. I don't want anything bad to happen to them. These instigators need to go.
12	Yes	Cause I look at the evidence.	I gotta go.
13	Yes	Because I listen to the facts. Don't make decisions based on emotions but on facts. I'm an engineer.	No.
14	No	N/A	You know there have been too many stories.... The only thing I would add is let's get it done and over with.
15	Yes	I can be fair unless it is a serious moral issue and then my religion and conscience would guide me.	No, not really. This is not our fight. Even good people on the rez don't want nothing to do with this mess. Most of those people are paid protesters and agitators - not members of the community. It will end in guns and blood.
16	Yes	I have a level head and could be a fair juror.	No. I am hoping that a couple feet of snow and the sub-zero weather we are getting will make them go away. I had some sympathy until they started being abusive to children.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
17	Yeah, they can get the hell out of here. They are killing cattle, getting paid by someone $1200 a week.	Yes	They threatened to burn down the homes of cops who arrested them. They spit at cops and blocked roads.
18	Ah, well, the protesters are worried about an oil spill. Statements made about police brutality.	Yes	There are a lot of out-of-staters being arrested for crimes at home. They have outstanding warrants and are criminals. The ones who are arrested here are breaking the law - like rioting and damaging property.
19	Getting sick and tired of it. What are the main problems here? It's a two way street.	Yes	Many people have been arrested for crimes ranging from trespassing to far more serious things - not sure what I hear is real or not
20	Um, Native Americans didn't want the pipeline crossing their land and contaminating their drinking water.	Yes	They are there illegally. The protest is not peaceful as they said it is. Law enforcement are out in the cold trying not to be injured by people who don't belong here.
21	It's a bunch of false narratives. Natives have a problem with the pipeline but not until it's half done. Over three billion dollars of work done and they start complaining. Most of the protesters aren't from here. Hippies from California and Oregon are most of them. 92 percent arrested are not from here. I am Native American	Yes	Yes. I've heard some of them threatened people and one police officer was hit - I don't know what with. People say George Soros is paying them to protest. Most are not from North Dakota and we are having to pay for their misbehavior. So many extra police cost a lot of money.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
17	Yes	No	No	No	Mostly my husband and one other woman who told me what is going on. They said it was violent.	No	N/A
18	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	How most local people would like those people to leave and go back home and mind their own business.	No	N/A
19	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	That the whole thing is sad for everyone; that we must try to understand both sides and that anger about some acts is justified.	Yes	Not well. I'd rather not say more.
20	No	Yes	No	Yes	People are negative about all of it. I don't know anyone who is in favor of what they are doing.	No	N/A
21	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Most of them say they should be but in a bus and taken to another country.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
17	No	N/A	Yes	A paramedic who came to take pictures of my kids - she said what was going on and told me the same things my husband told me.
18	No	N/A	Yes	I know some law enforcement.
19	No	N/A	Yes	I am active in the community and know many participants/actors.
20	No	N/A	No	N/A
21	No	N/A	Yes	We have relatives who had stuff stolen fro them and who have met roads blocks on the way home from town

17	2. Probably guilty	Because I've seen cop cars all over the place - all over town and I've seen some of the protests. So, I know they happened and they aren't peaceful.
18	1. Definitely guilty	I believe law enforcement have better things to do than to arrest people who haven't done anything wrong. Everyone knows what kind of people we're dealing with here.
19	Don't know	I assume some are "guilty" and some were swept away. I dislike making such statements without more firsthand knowledge.
20	1. Definitely guilty	The police don't arrest people who haven't done anything wrong. That's all. It's gone way too far and we are sick of it.
21	1. Definitely guilty	Well, I don't think there will be a problem with oil leaking and they are just going ahead with it (protests) anyway even though they know it won't cause real problems. I heard they are going to the bathroom in the river, so they can't be that worried about the water.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
17	Don't know	N/A	I just haven't seen enough of it to have an opinion. No.
18	Yes	Everyone is innocent until proven guilty by law.	No.
19	Yes	I hope so. I am less convinced of the rights and wrongs of it than most in the community.	It is sad and disruptive and has fed into old and new prejudices here. The effects will last a very long time.
20	No	N/A	I think they are a bunch of dummies who don't belong here. No. We want our state back. That's all.
21	Don't know	N/A	Well, I don't know what they would expect of me. I spend the winter in Arizona, so am not there for all of it. They put a pickup on the tracks and set it on fire. Why would you do that? It's not North Dakota Indians doing that sort of things.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
22	A lot of things. People are being paid to protest. They are violent, abusive to children, blocking roads; keeping people from their destinations.	Yes	I've driven by when some arrests were being made. That is all I know. I didn't see what they were doing before they got arrested. That is all.
23	They are pestering all the cops and not being peaceful about it. It's not a peaceful protest.	Yes	They were arrested but I don't pay much attention because it's silly and they should just go back home. They were arrested for doing things they shouldn't do.
24	Too much to say. #1 Rioting in the streets and malls. #2 Taunting of law enforcement #3 Most important, interfering with our lives in general	Yes	Some of the arrests seem legitimate to me and I have witnessed some of the actions that led to arrests. I've heard of aggression towards law enforcement, damage to property and a whole lot of trespassing and roadblocks.
25	All of the media are full of it and everyone either talks about it a lot or are so upset they won't discuss it anymore. The stories are very contradictory.	Yes	Lots of them are being arrested for being violent. I have seen some of these incidents and my family and friends have seen it in person. No one is making this up.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
22	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I went to the Heritage Center and couldn't get in because it was blocked. That is all I have discussed with anyone. You shouldn't make assumptions about someone's opinions based on their race or job or anything. You might guess wrong.	No	N/A
23	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Mainly that it's a big waste of money and it's not right what they're doing.	No	N/A
24	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Damage to property, anger and resentment on all sides. Most people believe the bad ones are paid agitators.	No	N/A
25	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We "Back the Blue" and are anti-protesters. We are anxious and annoyed. The new pipe is so much safer that they really have no case that it threatens the water.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
22	No	N/A	No	N/A
23	No	N/A	Yes	I know some law enforcement but they can't talk about what's going on. They can't discuss it out of the department or even with their families.
24	No	N/A	No	N/A
25	Yes	My son and I are both pipe liners and we have been anti-protesting.	Yes	We are very frustrated and know law enforcement who are involved and know how hard it has been on their families.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
22	Don't know	I have not seen it personally so I couldn't judge guilty or not guilty. I thin feeling are high and both sides. There could be a solution that would make everyone satisfied.
23	2. Probably guilty	Just from what I've seen. They're outsiders and law enforcement are only doing their jobs.
24	2. Probably guilty	Probably guilty of something even if most of them were just there to be part of it and don't have evil intent. I heard almost all of those arrested are not local or even state residents.
25	1. Definitely guilty	Because I have witnessed the anxiety they have caused for everyone. They are making people buy more guns. They put a severed pig's head on a stick and waved it around threatening the law. A man died because his ambulance couldn't get to the hospital. They are guilty of his death.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
22	No	N/A	If any of these people get arrested, they could be in my direct care. It would be a conflict if I was on a jury. It's just that I prefer to stay out of it but I can see both sides.
23	Yes	Because I have an open mind.	No, not really. I wish they would just leave like they're told to before something bad happens.
24	Don't know	N/A	Well, maybe no. I'd be worried about my friends and neighbors opinions and reactions. In a small town everyone hears what happens in a jury even if they aren't supposed to talk about it. I consider this a small town because of our values.
25	No	N/A	I am very one-sided on this and could not be persuaded on other than guilty verdicts. I just want it to end peacefully without any gunfire. We are worried that shootings will happen. There are too many people with guns around now.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
26	I don't know how to answer that. They are late to the ballgame. All of this should have come up long ago.	Yes	That they have maliciously threatened police. A lot of press not reporting it as it is - blowing it all of proportion. They are tweaking police personally and their wives; that they'll get their bank accounts. Husband has a 'phone link' and heard protesters say, "let's go in to rape their wives while they're out.
27	Going from town to town marching and protesting. I've heard just about everything about it. Relatives tell me that they can't move around town. Jane Fonda came and served dinner to the protesters on Thanksgiving.	Yes	Generally been arrested because of their failing to obey the law and doing things they shouldn't be. Knowing people on front lines - law enforcement there is more going on than media tells us.
28	Just people protesting because they think the pipeline would ruin the water. I think they should build a bridge and put the pipeline on top of it so it can be properly inspected.	Yes	Many are spitting on police officers and starting a lot of fires. They're rioting and causing problems.
29	It's almost all I read or hear about. The pipeline was almost finished and some people finally thought of a way to stop it by calling it a religious matter.... And disrupting our lives.	Yes	The judicial system is backed up. People have complained where they were held/detained.
30	It's like the protesters say one thing and you find out later it's not true. We really just want them to go home.They don't live and are not from here.	Yes	They're on private property, blocking public properties; school bus routes, highways and freeways. It's affecting ranchers and farmers too.
31	They are protesting the water going under the river. That is all. We don't like professional protesters.	Yes	Trespassing at the mall and other public places too. Throwing things at law enforcement, spitting on them and even vandalizing.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
26	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	It's time for this to get settled. It's not good. We need to get it done. The economy is so important to our people. They talk about a treaty in 1885 that the Native Americans never signed. There have been so many demonstrators - even spray painted the Capitol building and help up the traffic - going too far. It's getting cold in North Dakota. They have to find places that are safe - go home.	No	N/A
27	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	That it's crazy that it's gone on so long and not dealt with more seriously to get it over with.	No	N/A
28	No	No	No	No	Don't like to talk about it. Too frustrating for me right now.	No	N/A
29	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Comments from friends, etc. Should've put an end to it along time ago. President Obama was late to the game.	No	N/A
30	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I try to stay away from the anti Native American arguments.	No	N/A
31	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Mostly, I understand both sides of the argument.	Yes	Friends, not family. I'd rather not give any detail.

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
26	No	N/A	No	N/A
27	No	N/A	Yes	Conversations here and there with law enforcement. Know also landowners who are nearby and affected.
28	No	N/A	No	N/A
29	No	N/A	No	N/A
30	No	N/A	No	N/A
31	No	N/A	Yes	I have friends in law enforcement.

26	1. Definitely guilty	Our governor has really been lenient. He didn't want to cause any commotion and didn't enforce some of the rules earlier. They have been spitting on police, yelling on TV. A girl injured her arm in the protest. They are throwing propane cylinders at police and slashing police vehicles. The state of North Dakota has incurred millions in expenses in trying to control them. Funds would be much better used for education, highways, safety. They are there to destroy, not rebuild. It's a very sad state of affairs.
27	2. Probably guilty	If they were arrested, probably doing stuff they shouldn't.
28	2. Probably guilty	No more to share, I'm getting tired of talking about it.
29	1. Definitely guilty	You see their actions and words on the news, right in front of you. It's obvious they're guilty.
30	2. Probably guilty	I think they need to be properly tried in the court room.
31	2. Probably guilty	They are stirring up trouble and they'll stop at nothing to be "in the news".

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
26	Don't know	N/A	I would be able to listen but strongly prejudiced because of their actions. It's gone on so long and caused bad feelings in our state. I have wonderful Native American friends and do not hold them responsible (Chippewa). It's so close - within 20 miles. Our energy is important to the economy of North Dakota. Needs to be completed. Trying to confine it to a certain area - safer than above ground. It could be much worse. The Native American population are not even drinking the water. They pee in it. Would like to see research that Archambault, Sioux spokesman owns a convenience store near protests. I heard he would like protests to continue to keep padding his pockets. if that's true, it's ridiculous. Being paid $15 an hour to come protest - not our wonderful North Dakotans - just people looking to agitate. They are protesting two blocks from my daughter's home - she's had trouble getting home. We want the best for our state - so much to offer - our resources are the most important part. We need to get the resources where they need to go. It affords so many jobs. Such an important issue!
27	Yes	I am an honest person. I believe in fair trials.	Don't know much about the court system - hard to say if Burleigh County residents would give a fair trial.
28	Yes	When I hear all the evidence, I think I could be an excellent juror.	Nope.
29	No	N/A	I have already expressed reasons why not.
30	Yes	I'm broad minded enough to look at it as on an individual basis. I can't make blanket judgments.	No.
31	Yes	I see both sides of the argument. I'm not the type that jumps to conclusions.	Not really

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
32	Well, they accused law enforcement of behavior that was not true. They say bad things happened that never happened.	Yes	The one that had a gun (out-of-stater who had a warrant against her) that came in and protested.
33	Mainly about the law enforcement presence and the other side of it as well. I'm kind of in the middle of it philosophy-wise.	Yes	Those arrested were on private property. Some were peaceful but many were militant (i.e., fires, damage, etc.)
34	Well, I've heard all about law enforcement, the pipeline, the protesters and the civil disobedience that has occurred.	Yes	I feel like the whole thing was over the top. I think we had too much going on re: energy development. It all comes down to the money.
35	There isn't an issue. It was all taken care of and then they brought in a bunch of rioters. Go home! We don't want you! Let the government handle it.	Yes	I've heard that if people protest they will get paid.
36	There is too much to remember. There was no problem until the thing was almost complete - then it all started - protests, vandalism, push back and all.	Yes	Well, trespassing and a lot of things that they have been doing that is not brought out to the public - killing cattle.
37	Well, the protesters from outside are out of control. In-staters are asking them to leave. They are being hired to protest and now they are in danger from violence and weather.	Yes	They are trespassing. They are throwing things at police and by-standers. They slaughtered animals, stopped motorists and slashed tires. But the news reported they had prayer circle and sacred moments.
38	Rally too much to list everything. There are peaceful and non-peaceful protests and protesters. Horrific things have happened, e.g. pig's head on a pole, burning vehicles, threats to police.	Yes	There wasn't any mention of problems during the pre-construction meetings. Then, after they moved forward with permits and with the pipeline, the protesters came in from outside and started causing trouble.
39	After 6 o'clock it runs every 30 minutes. The pipeline is supposed to go under Lake Oahe but they found artifacts.	Yes	Quite a few have been arrested. Many have had their charges dismissed.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
32	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Everyone has some feelings. I hang out with the crowd that would like to see it done.	No	N/A
33	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	All seem to be in favor of the pipeline.	No	N/A
34	No	No	No	No	N/A	No	N/A
35	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	People are jumping to conclusions or they're not even taking the time to really take a side at all.	No	N/A
36	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	Different aspect of it. What I've heard on National news doesn't represent what's really going on.	No	N/A
37	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	We talk about the legality of the protesters position.	No	N/A
38	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We're getting fed up with everything breaking out and I feel like the others came in to take up the cause after the tribe had peacefully protested the pipeline. The police have been mis-portrayed in the media. They should be commended for their service.	No	N/A
39	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Follow the law. Don't disrupt the citizens 'lives. Don't follow us around with cameras if we don't agree to talk with you. Don't harass us.	Yes	A few people who have spent time at the camp are no-DAPL believers are actually my friends even though we do not agree on these issues.

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
32	Yes	I'm part of a union - so I do have minor associations.	Yes	I have a son in the National Guard - to protect and serve. He's working long hours.
33	No	N/A	Yes	I know some residents that had to commute around the area. They had to take detours because of the roadblocks.
34	No	N/A	Yes	Casually. I know people who live in that area.
35	No	N/A	No	N/A
36	No	N/A	No	N/A
37	No	N/A	Yes	A law enforcer is my friend. He isn't sharing too much but they are exhausted. I also know a college student in the National Guard. He has had to drop out of school because he is called up all the time for this event.
38	No	N/A	Yes	I have friends of friends who know the people
39	No	N/A	Yes	I know some law enforcement officers.

32	3. probably not guilty	They'll probably get off in court! It happens all the time.
33	2. Probably guilty	I think from what I've seen in the news, they've been antagonizing law enforcement.
34	3. probably not guilty	It shouldn't have had to come to this in the first place. We had this scenario, with a different governor. It seemed like it was handled better last time. I feel like it is really all about the money - as usual.
35	Don't know	I think people are innocent until proven guilty.
36	2. Probably guilty	I just know when they set fires on the bridges is not good. Well, just from the things they've done based on what's been reported. The casino south of Cannon Ball they've suffered a lot too. No of us go down there any more. They are losing money or not making money like they were. A lot of the people who used to work there have been laid off.
37	2. Probably guilty	All were trespassing and are guilty of that, but those that vandalized and slashed tires, etc., impeding traffic , will have to go through the law process of our court system.
38	2. Probably guilty	Probably guilty or guilty. I feel like a lot of these people came in from out-of-state causing a ruckus like starting a fire on a car and putting it on the railroad track which stopped the railroad for hours.
39	2. Probably guilty	The land that their camp is on is Army Corps of Engineers land. So they are trespassing on Federal land simply by residing there. But, presentation of the evidence in what determines their guilt.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
32	Yes	No answer	No.
33	Yes	I would listen to the facts and base me decisions 'unbiasedly'.	No.
34	No	N/A	I think I would be excused (from jury duty) not just because of my age but I have strong opinions too. I don't understand why the pipeline had to cross the Missouri River in 2 spots.
35	Don't know	N/A	It's potentially a bad situation for me to be on a jury. I'm a doctor in the community. I think there is likely to be some social ramifications so I could go both ways. It's been really annoying and it's been a very drawn out situation. The people of North Dakota are just plain tired.
36	Don't know	N/A	Business men were threatened and followed home because they wouldn't carry or sell supplies for the protesters.
37	Yes	I think the evidence would need to fit the crime.	It has cost the stat $17 million the last several months. This could have been used on infrastructure or schools.
38	No	N/A	I have a really bad taste in my mouth from the whole thing so I probably wouldn't be fair.
39	Yes	I would have to see the evidence which will say whether they are innocent or guilty.	I wish our life could go back to normal. I'm really worried about my children. There have been rumors that the protesters may disrupt the schools somehow.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
40	I think they are very ridiculous. They have gotten way out of hand. I think it is the protesters from out of state.	Yes	It is specifically the protesting and them listening to police. Trespassing. I would be charged with a crime if I was on Federal land. It is disruptive and I'm sure the tribes have wondered whether this has gotten out of hand.
41	Both sides spin. People are shutting down roads. It's non-stop. What gets me the most is the spin. It's tiring to see someone take something that's happened as if it's the truth and getting it so wrong. People are coming in from out-of-state - Eco terrorists. People on the reservation are peaceful. We have good relations with people on the reservations. Those on the reservations are asking people to leave and they won't. People are going to be dead. Cops help them out and then they got to be told they're being arrested.	Yes	There have been posts on Facebook threatening violence against law enforcement officers' families and showing their addresses. My friend sent me a post from FB about something to the effect that they had the white tactical military out and they were going to rape the police officers' wives during the snowstorm. Also, protesters had blocked a street in Mandan and they put a pig's head on a stake and taunted the police.
42	I have read or heard news against protesters. They are talking and turning people against them. There are robo-calls when they are heading in warning that they are coming and to avoid that area. It makes it sound like it's dangerous. The schools are supposed to be prepared for lockdown. I hear they are rioting and breaking the law. They are trying to turn people against the protesters.	Yes	They've been arrested but most of the media portrays the protesters as saints. Not many protesters are tribal. About 99 percent are hired and from out of town.
43	Initially we all felt for Standing Rock until professional protesters came in. The defacing of the Capitol building, the Molotov cocktails, the disruption of main street. We've been inconvenienced because the counties have had to use police presence to represent the Army Corps. There's been no Federal presence. Being so close to the site	Yes	protesters were trespassing and blocking roadways. Had any other citizens done that they would be charged and be jailed.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
40	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	At first, everyone kept to themselves. But now the are out-of-staters and celebrities - Jane Fonda - that have publicized the issue. We think it's out of hand now.	No	N/A
41	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	People coming around trying shut down businesses. They've defaced some monuments in Bismarck and thrown oil on the Capital steps.	No	N/A
42	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We're all in the same camp. In the 80's when they went across that area, there were no artifacts or sacred items. Now all of a sudden, it's sacred.	No	N/A
43	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Recently, it's been the weather and hoping everyone gets out safely. Just general updates about the situation otherwise.	Yes	I have numerous colleagues and friends that know some protesters and families.

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
40	No	N/A	Yes	I know some of the sheriffs and their hours are intense. Plus $12 million has been spent by the state for extra sheriffs and police forces to cover the protesters.
41	Yes	My hairdressers hubby works on the DAPL.	No	N/A
42	No	N/A	No	N/A
43	No	N/A	Yes	I know law enforcement and people who own land there.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
40	2. Probably guilty	We have to trust in law enforcement. The protesters have crossed the line from peaceful protest to breaking the laws which are set aside for peaceful protest.
41	2. Probably guilty	Well, I do know people who have worked for the state's attorney's office and our court system is woefully underfunded and overworked since the oil boom here in North Dakota. So, the police have been tasked with too much already before the protest.
42	1. Definitely guilty	They wouldn't have arrested them, if they weren't in violation of the law.
43	2. Probably guilty	Everything in media is distorted somewhat. There is no neutral ground through the media. It's biased so I don't have the hard evidence.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
40	Yes	I believe I could be fair and impartial. But we all find that there is a point where we find we have a prejudice.	No
41	Yes	I could . Each person has their own particular case where they may have been at the wrong place at the wrong time. I would look at the evidence for each one.	It is very unfortunate. There are counter-protester groups.
42	No	N/A	I've read and followed it so closely that I've formed my own opinions, so I wouldn't be impartial.
43	No	N/A	No.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
44	Most recently how the Republican Senator is frustrated with the Obama recommendation denying the easement. They will be pushing to get the protesters off private property. I frequent a convenience store. A Native American works 12 hour shifts there. When the Federal Building was being surrounded, they parked at his gas station. After one hour the manager had their cars towed. They got pissed and threatened the worker. There has been fake blood poured on his porch and the kids' playground. I understand it's a valid cause they are protesting but this has been happening with pipelines under the Missouri before. It's frustrating. Where were they earlier when it was first brought up? They are violating the law. It can require force to remove them. It is eco-terrorism.	Yes	Tribes that come in are not our tribe. The biggest thing to me was the time the protesters tried to blame the police for the issues, i.e., Molotov cocktails, etc. They were the ones with the Molotov cocktails. We need to get off of foreign oil and just get the pipeline built.
45	Most protesters are from out of state. Most North Dakota residents don't appreciate that. Protesting about the pipeline and about water protection.	Yes	This isn't about native rights. This is our world rights. It's all about the right to have clean water. It's survival of life on this planet. From YouTube and talking to protesters, they were handled very badly. People have been injured badly. It's been horrendous.
46	They are there. They got into fights with police. Twenty five miles to the west, people were diverted from going down the street because it was blocked for the protests. They are marking up the Capitol building.	Yes	Disorderly conduct, etc. I think about time that has been wasted. Law enforcement has really stood down with these people. The protesters from out of town are professionals and have an agenda.
47	I've heard that there's a lot of out-of-state people causing trouble, violence, graffiti. I ran into a protest on the way home and could barely get through. I'm not happy with any of it. I know the Governor and Archambault are going to have a sit down but I am in favor of the pipeline finishing. There has to be a way to do this. If we don't want trains and trucks on the highway, it has to be done.	Yes	Violating, vandalizing property / cattle. Damage to police. Good ones too toughen

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
44	Yes	Yes	No	No	Everybody agrees that is should be built. Pipelines are the safest way to move the oil. Our nation's infrastructure is in such disrepair, the pipeline is the way to go.	Yes	I know some indigenous people that have gone down and protested and brought food and blankets.
45	No	Yes	Does not apply	Yes	One lady told me they stole $200 worth of meat from her freezer. I asked her how she knew it was a protester.	Yes	Some are Native Americans but mostly Unitarians. I attend the prayer circle at the Unitarian Church.
46	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Initially, everybody laughed about the media. But now, we are frustrated especially these last few days where the Administration has stopped the pipeline. The powers that be the last few days tried to warn folks to get out because of the weather.	No	N/A
47	No	No	Yes	Yes	Good people. First about pipeline - then about money.	Yes	Old friend

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
44	No	N/A	Yes	I know a couple of Burleigh County sheriffs or National Guard who have gone down there . They haven't said much about it, at least to me.
45	Yes	No Answer	No	I wanted to provide showers and laundry to protesters but my manager won't approve of it.
46	No	N/A	Yes	I know both first responders and ranchers. My daughter works for 911. I know both Native American farmers and ranchers. protesters have set the huge round bales of hay on fire. Now, the farmers have none for their cattle. They've set farm machinery on fire because the farmers didn't agree with them. The protesters have slaughtered cattle, buffalo and horses for the same reason. The American Natives were not sympathetic with the protesters, so they did this to them.
47	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
44	2. Probably guilty	They are probably guilty if they were arrested for breaking the law.
45	3. probably not guilty	Because of what I've seen on YouTube. Their purpose is to pray and be peaceful (the Water Watchers). This also include the outside protesters.
46	1. Definitely guilty	Because I know that the police have acted for months with extreme restraint. But now they've pushed so much that the police are bringing them in for egregious crimes.
47	2. Probably guilty	It depends. Some are; some are not depending on the incident.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
44	Yes	It would depend on what the charges were.	No.
45	No	N/A	Probably not - I would be pro-protester. I was raised around here and my family was not anti-Indian. We got long well with them and worked hand-in-hand with them.
46	No	N/A	I just wish someone would hear some of our story.
47	Yes	I would be fair but would not want to do it.	No.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
48	I've heard so much, I am definitely dead set against the protesters. Everything possible has been done to make the pipeline safe and we need it. It's time for the President to get on the ball and the Army Corps to get it done. It's costing the state and Indians a lot of money and causing a lot of hard feelings for years to come.	Yes	There is confrontation - burning of equipment. That's why they were arrested! Also, blocking roadways. There has been so much!
49	Sometimes in favor, Sometimes not. I've heard the protesters should leave.	Yes	Daily thing. Over 500 have been arrested. Most of the charges have been dropped.
50	It's all over the water and oil. I understand their point but I get sick and tired of listening to it.	No	N/A
51	That this is building and building. People of Bismarck are sick of it. Wish they'd go home. Out-of-state, paid protesters go home. Feel so much of press is taking incorrect info and blowing it out of proportion - not favorable for North Dakota. Concerned protector of protesters made their point, It's time to let it go.	Yes	If they do damage, they should be arrest. The protesters have damaged property. They all should go home.
52	That when they were walking near the high school kids go to, school was in lockdown. They take over wherever they go - not peaceful protesters.	Yes	That protesters have been charged - some with misdemeanor which I think they deserve, some with a felony which have all been dismissed - around 139 of them.
53	That we've got too many folks that think they're smarter than everyone else. All the way down to the Natives. They're already	Yes	Sometimes I think law enforcement was probably too strong - aggressive.
54	I know that of the protesters, some are violent, some are peaceful. I've heard that there are 7000 there. If there are that many, then they're doing OK - no deaths, But they are targeting police just for doing their jobs. There was a post on Facebook about wanting to rape police officers' wives. That's swaying my mind. I heard protesters make $1500 a day. I don't believe that. I heard about attacking farms and killing livestock for food. Also heard that tribes	Yes	You never hear what charges are sticking. We do not know if some are still in jail or if they have paid to get out.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
48	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	I work in a dental office. A patient came in and was very shook up. protesters made her very uncomfortable. Law enforcement is the meat in the sandwich.	No	N/A
49	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	This is a big thing. It was peaceful until outside protesters arrived and then it became violent.	No	N/A
50	Yes	No	No	No	No. answer.	No	N/A
51	Yes	No	No	No	Once in awhile it just comes up but nothing much.	No	N/A
52	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	My experience with the oil business. What idiots the protesters are. They are misguided.	No	N/A
53	No	No	No	No	N/A	No	N/A
54	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	I play bridge with a lady who has a ranch down there. She is even afraid to go to her ranch. We are afraid. Teachers who work in Fort Yates are scared.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
48	No	N/A	Yes	I heard about protests by the Capitol. Kinda just know somebody that knows somebody.
49	Yes	No answer.	No	N/A
50	No	N/A	No	N/A
51	No	N/A	No	N/A
52	No	N/A	Yes	We used an attorney before that represents Energy Transfer Now which is the company that works on the pipeline and want it to move forward.
53	No	N/A	No	N/A
54	No	N/A	Yes	Friends, community members, firemen, First responders, wives of law enforcement. Play bridge. Lots of worry.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
48	1. Definitely guilty	Well, if they were creating chaos and keeping people from the business of their everyday life.
49	2. Probably guilty	When they throw rocks or other stuff at Law Enforcement I feel that is pretty much guilty.
50	2. Probably guilty	I am sure the cops do not lie.
51	2. Probably guilty	They would not be arrested if they did not do something wrong.
52	2. Probably guilty	Especially the misdemeanor crimes. Because law enforcement arrested them.
53	3. probably not guilty	Just how I feel
54	2. Probably guilty	From what I see on TV, see them doing the acts. 91 percent of protesters are from out-of-state.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
48	No	N/A	Because I think I have been well, not directly, confronted but it has indirectly affected me - upset me.
49	No	N/A	I know too much (to be on a jury). We just wanted it over. It is gonna go on and on.
50	Don't know	N/A	I am fair in life but not sure I could be fair here.
51	Yes	It works both ways and I would look at both sides.	No.
52	Yes	I am a fair person. Based on the facts - I would sift the facts out.	No.
53	No	N/A	I do not feel they are guilty.
54	Yes	Fair and honest. Very scary. Worry about being subject to being harassed.	No.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
55	My personal experience with them. I've read and heard and I don't believe anything in the news.	Yes	The original movement was a peaceful one but lots came from across the country to support. Some don't share peaceful mode and have acted out inappropriately and violently. I have witnessed first hand protesters being arrested who have not violated any laws. There are bad eggs on both sides.
56	They are very aggressive. There is a misconception about Native Americans protesting. It's not them but the out-of-staters. There's a lot of violence and people are not respecting law enforcement.	Yes	If they have broke the law, they should be charged accordingly. I'm pretty busy in the media business here in the background. I'm not a reporter.
57	All the bad times they're having, the struggle, people getting hurt. I don't like any of it. Both sides have their rights.	Yes	Usually the ones that have been arrested have been committing crimes or else from out-of-state. Most who have been arrested are from out-of-state.
58	We call them rioters. They are ill-informed of the actual issues. They are unlawfully protesting. It's very disruptive.	Yes	Just the charges that were brought against them. Trespassing, protesters shouting and went to Federal Court.
59	I've heard that the Native Americans are protesting the pipeline going through their native land and there's been a lot of money spent on no compromise at all.	Yes	Just very disruptive. My daughter was driving downtown and got held up and scared.
60	It's gotten way out of hand. It's ridiculous. Stopping the pipeline - it will go through no matter what they do. It'd people from all over the United States who have no concern with the real issue.	Yes	Well, that's quite hard to say. I wasn't there to visualize it. So, I can't really say.
61	Indians are raising hell - protesting against it! Lots of people from out of state are making a lot of noise - seems like they're just trying to get on the news.	Yes	Well, they treat the police badly and complain that the police abuse them. They came into Bismarck and shut down the Capitol, court house, streets, grafitti-ing around Bismarck, killing ranchers' cattle.
62	As the protest went on, it got more violent. Protesting downtown, disrupting traffic, I am very annoyed with it!	Yes	They were arrested in Target; about 50 for trespassing at the mall here.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
55	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Try to be objective and understand both sides - advocate for truth, for facts and objective outlooks..	Yes	I have a few friends who I grew up with and know members of the Native community - good people. I also have political ties with people who are supporting on that level.
56	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We all believe they have the right to protest. They just need to go about it the right way without any violence.	No	N/A
57	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	I don't really care for the protesters, especially when they started getting violent.	No	N/A
58	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	The ridiculousness of the protesters.	Yes	Our children go to school with their children (the protesters).
59	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Disruptive people. People are being paid to come down here from out-of-state. I'm a veteran and I don't particularly know if they (vets) understand what's going on.	No	N/A
60	No	No	No	Yes	Well, most of us kinda think it's getting out of hand. When I hear about it, the protesters just want more Federal money.	No	N/A
61	Yes	Yes	No	No	Well, how out of control they are. How Federal Government has not tried to stop them. Somebody is going to get killed out there.	No	N/A
62	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	People want to see them go. They made their point. The pipeline is going through anyway.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
55	No	N/A	Yes	My (family members) are attorneys here and work for a construction firm that does environmental studies for oil companies not connected to DAPL. My (family member) owns a firm outside of the reservation and I have immediate family members in law enforcement.
56	No	N/A	Yes	I know a member of the law enforcement but haven't spoke with him about the protesters.
57	No	N/A	No	N/A
58	No	N/A	Yes	Know some of the landowners.
59	No	N/A	Yes	Haven't actually talked to them, like National Guard, if they have to get into it.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
55	Don't know	Can't answer because of 500 arrested don't know all situations. I have seen people appropriately arrested and those who were not guilty. Many people in town have 2nd hand information from the news and are angry about the effect of the protests. White community influence - too much bias.
56	2. Probably guilty	I would think that the police wouldn't arrest anyone for something unless they broke the law. They would have a good reason for arresting them.
57	1. Definitely guilty	This is just because of what I've heard. Some of them were arrested and were shipped to another state because they were wanted in the other state.
58	1. Definitely guilty	Ahhh, they were caught trespassing on private land.
59	2. Probably guilty	If there were ten out of 100 that got in trouble but 30 got arrested; it is hard to tell if or what other 20 were doing.
60	2. Probably guilty	I mean this is only what I hear. If I don't see it, how can I know? I've been told, emergency alerts for landowners when protesters are in the vicinity of my neighborhood. I live on the south side of Bismarck.
61	Don't know	Most of them arrested have a charge and have to go through the court system.
62	1. Definitely guilty	The majority of the ones are the ones getting paid and from out of town. They are the agitators.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
55	Yes	I do have a motive to look objectively and expose facts on both sides. Have family I love on both sides.	The energy infrastructure is important and the logistics behind DAPL planning is a little flawed. The original pipeline was supposed to go north but is now rerouted south. SO now indigenous people are taking issue. There are pipelines everywhere under the Missouri. No other pipeline of this magnitude - over 500 million barrels a day - could cause a big problem. Pipelines have the possibility of leaking - effect of that is catastrophic to everyone near river or its tributaries - a large portion of the population of the US. They could build it on an alternate route. There are a lot of people expressing their views without proper facts. That is the big issue.
56	Don't know	N/A	No.
57	Don't know	N/A	The whole thing isn't fair to any of us here. North Dakota has borrowed $17 million for law enforcement. The pipeline company has lost about $400 million because of this deal.
58	Refused	N/A	Depends on what the charges are.
59	Yes	If I heard all of the evidence involved. Hearsay would be tough to pick out the facts.	No.
60	No	N/A	I'm not that strong of a person to accuse anyone.
61	No	N/A	I'm pretty biased so I wouldn't be a good juror. I just got a notice on Bismarck Tribune that the Corps has denied them easement to cross the Missouri River just now.
62	No	N/A	No, you wouldn't want me on the jury. I'm not impartial. Just wish they would go home. They can protest but they block roads and bridges so even ambulances can't get through. Hell, somebody could die.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
63	The Indians had 3 reasons: first they used the excuse that it "contaminated" water, then a "burial ground" finally they said it was their exclusive property because of the 1830 Treaty.	Yes	I heard all kinds of things. Don't know what to believe. Over 500 - or 50 or less were arrested for attacking pipeline workers. They were in Bismarck on Thanksgiving Day and after - shut the mall down.
64	A lot of stuff. It's all over the place, you can't miss it! You hear about those "for" and those "against" the whole thing.	Yes	People - mostly people from outside of the state with no lives or jobs of their own are being paid to come here and cause trouble. It's all about money and the railroads not wanting to lose business or maybe it's honest for some but only about seven percent of those arrested.
65	All the trouble that they're causing law enforcement - extra hours. The out-of-staters should've stayed home.	Yes	Just that many of them have been arrested. The stories you hear turn out not to be true and I am not personally involved.
66	protesters didn't want pipeline to go under Missouri River. Reservation issues with Indians. The Indians are very vocal about it.	Yes	There's two ways of looking at it. I can see the concern. But they - the protesters - advance into places where they don't belong - mostly people from out of state.
67	I don't pay attention to the news. I don't watch commercial television.	Yes	SO, here's what I think and I have said this for many years. The pipe should go over the river, not under it. As for arrests, most are dismissed and they are young followers who got carried away.
68	I've heard pluses and minuses on both sides. I've heard from many that there has been a lot of misinformation and many misunderstandings too.	Yes	They have been trespassing, attacking law enforcement, killing animals and blocking streets and highways. I've seen it on TV.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
63	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Well, what's going to happen? When will it end? I'm afraid someone might get killed over this issue.	Yes	I used to work with her. She was on a lot of videos on Facebook protesting.
64	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	That we want it to be over and how the media can show only one side if there's money to be made.	No	N/A
65	No	No	No	No	N/A	No	N/A
66	No	Yes	No	Yes	Just that they are doing some dumb things like getting arrested. They're mostly from out of state and don't even know what they're fighting for.	No	N/A
67	Yes	Yes	No	No	Mainly that we wish it was over. I can see their point but technology goes on and we have to get used to changes and trust the technology.	No	N/A
68	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	Originally, I was a sympathizer until the outside agitators came in and there was all this civil disobedience. People agree that it has taken a turn for the worse.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
63	No	N/A	Yes	I know people who live in the area but have not talked with anyone.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
63	2. Probably guilty	I don't see our law enforcement arresting them for no reason whatsoever.
64	2. Probably guilty	In my opinion, peace officers do their best to avoid arresting others - Anyone who isn't guilty or disrupting lives. Why would they arrest someone and have to take care of them when they will just get out and do it again?
65	2. Probably guilty	The way I look at it, you are innocent until proved guilty but there's no flame without a spark. They must have done something. But it must be proven in a court of law.
66	1. Definitely guilty	Police are being very liberal on this situation. Police aren't going to drive 30 to 40 miles with people who aren't guilty. They're just trying to avoid harm and injury.
67	3. probably not guilty	Most are just followers. There are instigators and they came in or were brought in. Followers tend to be sincere and well meaning.
68	2. Probably guilty	Law enforcement has good reasons to arrest them. They are under scrutiny by the press, the media, do-gooders and the government so it would be hard to behave improperly.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
63	Yes	I would listen to the facts and judge them based on them.	I wish it would be done with. Some of them don't know about the North Dakota winters. I'm concerned about the children and our law enforcement.
64	Yes	Because I can listen to both sides and be fair. I think of myself as a fair-minded person.	No. Just that this isn't even a North Dakota problem, Money and protesters don't belong to us.
65	Yes	It's just like I said. There are two sides to every story. I would have to hear both sides.	No.
66	Yes	It's going to go through whether they want it to or not. I'm sympathetic to the Natives but any time you have conflicting interests - money issues - someone's going to lose. Pipelines are manmade and they will leak, Railroads are safer than they used to be, so maybe rails would be safer than pipes. It's the outsiders we object to.	No.
67	Yes	Well, I think I have an open mind and would hear both sides and I wouldn't enter into it angry and sure of my facts.	No, not really. It is an unnecessary and unfortunate situation,
68	Yes	Well, I think I could be a fair juror in any case regardless of the crime.	I hope those people don't freeze to death out there. It's below zero here now.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
69	It's got taken over by out-of-staters. They block roads, burned vehicles, ruined bridges.	Yes	It's mostly the chief (Archibald or something). Fifty five tribes told them to drop it but he has special interests. The Indians get their water out of South Dakota so it isn't about water. The protesters are being paid to come here.
70	They were clogging up the streets of Bismarck before the snow came. Marched up the State Capitol.	Yes	I'd imagine that some belong in jail. Wherever they are they cause trouble and some are young and stupid. Some crimes are worse than others. Some are unclear.
71	Mainly the issues with law enforcement. Some say the police are using excessive force while others say they are doing their best.	Yes	A lot of this is trespassing. Sometimes assault. There was a gun fired at police. There was a video released and removed because it makes them, look bad. People are causing problems - it's sickening. A lot of victim mentality. They are from out of state. If they have a case, take it to court - don't do it by violent protesting! There's a way to do it peacefully. There are some on the reservation trying to pick a fight with police.
72	I remember just what they get by with such as burning down vehicles. This is not a peaceful protest.	Yes	That they were threatening law enforcement, rioting, not following orders to back up and leave. Some statements that they had weapons were throwing rocks and sticks and refusing to leave.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
69	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	It's cost $17 million dollars in law enforcement and Standing Rock should be held 'reliable' for the costs.	No	N/A
70	Yes	Yes	No	No	That the upshot is harm to community and the State economy whatever the outcome. That's all.	No	N/A
71	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Family from out of state want to know what's going on. I try not to take sides. Let's go down and ship them out or let them do their thing - no reason to disrupt our life. We don't want to have no way of protecting our kids from the protesters.	Yes	I know indirectly those on the reservations - not the violent or out-of-state ones.
72	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	They have the right to protest. They didn't have input when it was decided to put it so close. They did not have all the environmental studies the should have. They'd go through sacred sites, treaties were not honored. That they are peaceful, prayerful and dedicated and finally standing up for themselves.	Yes	Through different meetings I've been to hear them speak, they are very sincere and fair sounding.

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
69	No	N/A	No	N/A
70	No	N/A	Yes	I'd rather not say.
71	No	N/A	Yes	I work out with a bunch of police force. I have a good friend in National Guard who was called down. We don't talk about it much.
72	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
69	1. Definitely guilty	They are paid $1500 per week to cause trouble and now there are 500 Black Panthers coming in here. They are criminals and not Indians. And veterans with trauma will come and it only takes one person to raise a gun.
70	Don't know	I'm sure some are but the situation is very heated. Would prefer not to make a judgement based on diverse media reports.
71	Don't know	A lot would leave it to the rule of law. I don't have the information. I haven't gone down and seen it in person. I have second hand information. I can't give credence to. I have to judge individually.
72	4. Definitely not guilty	They were defending themselves or their ground and people around them. They are not aggressive but defensive. In general, they don't have guns. Rocks and sticks don't count.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
69	No	N/A	Because I'm ready to explode! We have Native American grandkids and they don't agree with all of this and they aren't out there freezing their hind ends off.
70	Yes	I am fair and believe the court system can sort it all out.	Not really.
71	Yes	I have a background in the military. I have dealt with this and I get it. I don't care what the media says. I won't be pushed or swayed. I don't have a stake in the case. I don't want anyone to get hurt.	Please God, get people off that land before 50 degree wind-chill. It's nasty.
72	Yes	I have a sense of justice and fairness and can see both sides.	Practically everything law enforcement has done - blockades and military style policy - is to much. The money spent was unnecessary. The way they were treated in jail was unnecessary and intimidation is unnecessary. Any tribal leaders who speak to get their message out is not printed or it's twisted. I fear for them for how it's going to end.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
73	Just about everything. Most of them are from out of state. I'm concerned about the drinking water. It was supposed to go north of Bismarck.	Yes	Heard about protesters with warrants in other states for disobedience. Some have been arrested for minor infractions and held. protesters have protested and then been released from jail. From disobedience to disrupting traffic. On Standing Rock, Molotov cocktails, burning logs thrown during the protest. There are bridges over there that they never give us access. The protesters have set fires on bridges, including vehicles. The DOT fears the bridges are damaged - they are damaging public property. protesters are still trying to use the bridges and they have been arrested for that. Up to 500 arrests. The vast majority are nonviolent. A handful of concern for safety of the general public.
74	I followed it from the beginning. Most recently, the head of the tribe, Archambault. Has asked them to leave. Those from out-of-state, that is.	Yes	One lady is now charged federally for pointing and firing a gun at an officer. Recent judgement by federal court judge who dismissed reckless endangerment charges. A few weeks earlier male judge had charged - divide in the courts on a state level
75	There is so much crap going around, nobody knows nothing. Why don't those dumbbells stay home?	No	N/A
76	I've read and heard a lot of stuff. I think it's silly and I am not in favor, They have killed animals and burned things and damaged property.	Yes	I've seen that the protesters have been arrested for trespassing. This was on the TV news and newspaper.
77	Yes. I am very disgusted and there is nothing anybody will do anything about it. People will sit at home with doors locked, afraid to get out.	Yes	The biggest thing most protesters arrested are from out of state. My personal feeling is that the police/sheriff have restrained themselves. It's out of hand and I am surprised the National Guard hasn't been out there to put an end to it.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
73	No	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	A neighbor was upset because he couldn't take a package to the US Post Office. Sometimes there is reverse 911 calling with warnings to avoid parts of town. It's an inconvenience. The concern with those camping on the banks of the river, in the flood plain, to protect the river, not a good place to be. We're concerned about individuals with cold temperatures and wind chill. The latest story of a group of veterans coming to support the cause. Everyone is saying don't come to break the law. It's an insult to WWII vets who served at Pearl Harbor that they came on that day. Only 35 of the arrestees were North Dakota residents.	No	N/A
74	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	It depends on which point of view. There are points on behalf of protesters or pipeline. It tends to be a bashing fest on both sides.	No	N/A
75	Yes	Yes	No	No	In the Kirkwood Mall in Bismarck, they were slamming Indians on the floor.	No	N/A
76	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	We usually talk about that the protests need to end. It's gotten so out of hand.	No	N/A
77	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	Most feel the same. Why are they coming from out of state? Why are the locals not protesting more? I feel bad for the pipeline. It went through the process and permits and should be able to finish. The Natives had an opportunity over a year ago to voice concerns.	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
73	2. Probably guilty	Ninety percent sick and tired of them I trust the outside oversight. Every smart phone has a camera. It's hard to disguise the fact of what happened. TV is filming. It's hard to buy what they have done.
74	Don't know	Can't say myself. I don't have enough evidence and don't want to judge based on hearsay or lack of truthful reporting.
75	2. Probably guilty	Well, if they were arrested, they are probably guilty. This is what I heard on the radio.
76	2. Probably guilty	I'm in business law so I know what people can and cannot do.
77	2. Probably guilty	Because I'm told they are trespassing and they are blocking bridges and roads. They are guilty of something. Maybe it won't come to an end until someone is killed. Most are peaceful, a small fraction is disruptive.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
73	Yes	I have to believe that the outside attorneys who have been assisting could be wiley. I believe in our system and that each has a right to a fair trial. I am intelligent enough to listen to all the facts to be fair.	The original crossing should have been farther away Why didn't they protest sooner and more? The pipeline company has been very concerned - a pipe within a pipe with immediate shutoffs. I'd hate to see it happen but I'm a realist. I don't see how it could be changed at this point. I hope they could other environmental safety measures. I worry as how much is propaganda vs. real factual. The Bismarck Tribune is no longer locally owned. There is a big, color four-pager on the protests. Young reported are trying to make their name and may be presenting biased news that gets attention. It is so unique to all of us. Celebrities used to be careful with riling up the outside forces. There's been disruption of Bismarck. They picketed Wells Fargo office (investors). It's tiring to have this mess of people fighting the wrong fight. Pipeline is here - the investors are in DC. We're a small state. Didn't you learn in kindergarten to be kind to people?
74	Yes	I'm objective. I can see things from both points of view. I evaluate facts. I can see black and white and look at more to consider the whole picture.	The pipeline is a cost-effective way to move energy. I can also see it from Native American's point of view. I like to decide from my own observation but that is hard with the media coverage presenting protesters as guilty. I grew up in North Dakota, moved to Ottawa and recently moved back. I realize the box people here live in. Opinions are skewed in one direction. They are insular and don't get out. It's frustrating at times. I believe I bring a lot more objectivity than those who have only lived here in North Dakota.
75	No	N/A	no.
76	No	N/A	No.
77	Yes	I've served on juries before. I can weigh the pros and cons on anything. I personally have no skin in the game and no interest in either side.	I'm not sure if they are guilty but they're wrong in protesting.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
78	Read everything in the Bismarck Tribune,	Yes	I don't remember. Just that they are fighting.
79	They are all professionals. The Sioux Indian Tribe started it but outsiders have come in and have taken over. Some even from Australia. The Army Corps is also at fault. Railroad isn't as safe as a pipeline, railroad has had a lot of fires, etc. Also helps the local	Yes	Those who were arrested were not necessarily local, not all of them. Those who got arrested were because they got violent.
80	I guess I hear mostly positive news on National news regarding the protesters, that is there were no versions from the police side of the confrontation. So that was positive for the protesters, i.e. the news is biased.	Yes	They should be charged a lot more. They are on private land and have destroyed private property. There is so much - over 400 arrests.
81	Well, I guess they've said a lot of negative stuff against the cops. It was a peaceful protest until outsiders came in and caused trouble. Prior to this, the Natives and police got along well.	Yes	In my opinion, if something serious happens and someone gets shot, then there will be trouble. They haven't been charged with anything serious except being a nuisance.
82	They say it's about wanting to protect the water and sacred grounds. But they're going right along side of existing pipelines under the river and the area is not sacred burial ground. The tribe was notified four times to come to meetings before the permit was started. Then, outside protesters came in and there has been a	Yes	They were burning equipment and burning cars on bridges. When they're on the media, they're always praying. I'm tired of hearing the protesters say everyone is lying and they are telling the truth.
83	I want it to be settled. I want it to go away. It is so controversial and splitting our community. Oil companies should do due diligence before building 90 - 95 percent then assuming they could just get the easements they should have had all the time.	Yes	Mostly that they're getting in the way, threatening people, following people home, harassing them.
84	Standing Rock is upset and doesn't want it to impact their water supply. A lot of outsiders have come in and blown it all out of proportion.	Yes	Mostly that they were getting rambunctious. They were blocking roads so an ambulance couldn't get through. I know of a death that was a result. One shot at police. They were vandalizing.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
78	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	A lady told me about things being broken into in New Salem 25 miles east of here. Just that it's there at the High school taking over everything. Just today in the paper I read that they are going to have emergency people to evacuate them or try to.	Yes	One lady - granddaughter of a friend of mine. I haven't talked with her - just thought it was interesting.
79	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	We are feeling that the pipeline should be finished. The protesters should go home. The Governor needs to sit down and settle peaceably.	No	N/A

84	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We just want them gone. Those from our state were peaceful. We want the violent ones gone. We're concerned with their safety. Thirty inches of snow in the last five days. Forty below with wind-chill. If they don't move to designated spots, they will die.	Yes	I have aunts and uncles protesting. I have a friend - the protester vandalized his car.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
78	2. Probably guilty	I have faith in law enforcement. They wouldn't charge them if they weren't guilty but I don't know.
79	2. Probably guilty	There could be bystanders swept up in it. One woman in a prayer meeting was swept up in it. It's a riot. Not all arrested were probably guilty but the ones are (guilty) who are rioting, throwing bottles, rocks, etc. They are workers who are just doing their jobs they were hired to do.
80	2. Probably guilty	They wouldn't be arrested if they hadn't done anything wrong.
81	2. Probably guilty	Probably partly guilty. Maybe some have done some things that weren't right, maybe others were in the wrong place at the wrong time. Me and my buddies talk about maybe some white people living down there are causing trouble. Animals have been shot. Maybe it's not the protesters, maybe they're just getting even and making it look like it's the protesters.
82	1. Definitely guilty	From what I've heard and read, they are not from here but come here, many have criminal records and they are the instigators.
83	2. Probably guilty	If they get into a confrontation with police and get arrested, then they are probably guilty. A certain percent are from out-of-state. They are just coming here to stick their nose in where is doesn't belong.
84	2. Probably guilty	In videos I've seen, they've been rowdy. They broke the law by blocking streets even if nothing severe. I do like what they're standing up for. I just wish they would do it differently.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
78	Don't know	N/A	Maybe at first I could have been an impartial juror but it has gone on too long. I've heard thing about it should be built but maybe not there. It's gone on too long. The protesters only 20 percent are from North Dakota. The rest are from out-of-state.
79	Don't know	N/A	Because of all the media and the people affected by it and what they are dealing with. It's a black eye for our state. I don't like it. People should go home and let the pipeline be built. I wish they'd go home and let everybody here live in peace again.
80	Yes	Depending on what kind of case it was. Some are pretty cut and dried like destroying private property. I would try to be fair and impartial.	They spent years building it this far. Finish it! I don't know... most wish it was over with and we would get the darn thing built and get the trucks off the road.
81	Don't know	N/A	I've never sat on a jury, never judged anyone right or wrong. Maybe if more were affected I could give a different opinion. Maybe the pipeline people went about it the wrong way. Everybody I've talked to thinks the protesters are up to no good. That's why they were arrested. It's 75-80 miles away so were not affected as much.
82	No	N/A	From everything you hear and see on streets, yelling at people. I couldn't bee a fair juror. If they are destroying things, they should be arrested.
83	No	N/A	I'm too opinionated. I form opinions and stick to it. Not just in this instance.
84	Yes	I see both sides - people on both sides. I hear it from both sides and get both opinions.	I don't like the location. Why not put in above water or somewhere else? I hope they consider moving to designated spot. They could be major consequences. They are stuck in a valley. I hope things turn out.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
85	Essentially lawlessness. I'm 100 percent for 1st Amendment freedom but I cannot condone the lawless acts recently.	Yes	They were trespassing and violent. They need to go away. They trespassed on my bother's land, cut his fences and more. They are blocking roads so we can't get through.
86	First off, the beginning protests began on drinking water. The Army Corps offered $15 million but they wanted $30 million. SO, the Corps went another direction. Then out-of-towners came in and changed the direction of things.	Yes	Arrested for trespassing and one gal charged for attempted murder for pulling a gun at law enforcement.
87	They are a bunch of paid protesters and they aren't doing anything for the tribe.	Yes	Some arrested but I don't know if they are right or wrong. I don't remember more.
88	Well, there has been so much. Thousands of protesters are out at the Army Corps of Engineers and private land. A lot of damage has occurred.	Yes	That they were arrested for trespassing, destruction of property, vandalism, things like that.
89	I sympathize with both sides. For the side against the protesters, there were multiple meetings they didn't attend to voice their concerns prior to starting DAPL. Part of the frustration is people are frustrated because traffic comes to a halt because roads are plugged. However, those meetings were convenient for	Yes	I'm not exactly sure why they were arrested and what for, but I've heard about them damaging others' property, starting things on fire, not just them being Native Americans.
90	Well, I remember a lot. I think the protesters are crazy. They had every opportunity in 2015 to voice their opinions. We've got thousands of pipelines that cross water bodies.	Yes	They've been throwing things at law enforcement, being rowdy, tying up traffic and trespassing on private property.
91	I think the pipeline did try to contact the tribe on numerous occasions but were rebuffed.	Yes	They've been damaging pipeline equipment burnt and destroyed.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
85	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Just how they're hypocritical and don't have a clue. The media is being negative - not telling the truth, the real story. It's nothing compared to what's happened.	No	N/A
86	Yes	Yes	No	No	We have mixed feelings. Some are for and some against the protests. With my family, we really don't discuss politics. With friends it is mixed. I have friends on the reservation. I respect those for and against. I don't know what to believe because I'm not down there personally,	Yes	friends and family on the reservation.
87	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	We talk about who's right or wrong. I feel sorry for them in this kind of weather.	No	N/A
88	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Mainly how much they are disrupting and have been threatening law enforcement. The relationship between the Native Americans and citizens has been destroyed because of the protesters. How absolutely sad it is that their true message of protecting the water and their sacred sites has been lost because of the protesters' actions. A lot of people will never look at them the same.	No	N/A
89	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	That something needs to be done to resolve it. There has been an over-abundance of funds spent on law enforcement and no resolution of it.	No	N/A
90	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	Everybody is against the protest, about the way they are acting and different things they've been doing and the general upheaval they've caused.	No	N/A
91	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	The pipeline should be put through. We are all in agreement.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
85	No	N/A	Yes	Friends who are landowners.
86	No	N/A	Yes	Yes. Law enforcement and landowners and first responders.
87	No	N/A	No	N/A
88	No	N/A	Yes	Law enforcement friends.
89	No	N/A	No	N/A
90	No	N/A	Yes	My grand-daughter is a deputy sheriff. She's been called in on her days off.
91	Yes	Just a couple of acquaintances from last fall from Linton,	Yes	I know landowners right down at the protest area. He has about 20,000 cows.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
85	1. Definitely guilty	I have seen those not arrested that should be. Law enforcement has taken a lot from them. They were trespassing and told to leave. Those trespassing are all guilty right now.
86	2. Probably guilty	Probably guilty based on what I've heard from family members in the camp. The media has an effect too. I don't always believe them. There are trespassing charges, misdemeanors, animals being slaughtered. Hard to prove though.
87	3. probably not guilty	I don't know a lot of details. It's more of a gut feeling.
88	2. Probably guilty	Because I've done my research and watched their videos posted on their side and looked at the other side. A good majority of them were arrested for breaking the law. If it goes farther, they will get a fair trial.
89	2. Probably guilty	Law enforcement wouldn't arrest them if they had not committed a crime. They are innocent until proven guilty but if they were in any area they weren't supposed to be in, then they were trespassing.
90	2. Probably guilty	I don't believe that law enforcement would arrest that many people without cause.
91	2. Probably guilty	Well, I know some of the law enforcement people and they've been pretty reserved in their arrests. So, the ones that were arrested were more than likely guilty.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
85	No	N/A	I think they are all guilty. There should be more arrested.
86	No	N/A	Personally I take both sides but I can't side with the protesters. My personal opinion would interfere with being objective. The pipeline is safer, less hazardous to truck drivers but I don't care one way or another if it'd built.
87	No	N/A	I don't know which side I'm for. I wouldn't want to get involved. I'm just glad it's almost over - I hope.
88	Yes	Because I'm the kind of person who will weigh both sides. I like to make informed decisions. I read articles and watch videos on both sides. I am not biased.	It's very sad that people from the outside have come in and irresponsibly destroyed a good working relationship with Native Americans here. We will never look at another Native American without some snap judgement after what they've done and how they've acted.
89	No	N/A	I'm kind of at the point of tolerance. It's been going on so long. The pipeline is not that big of a deal. It's not the only one that's run under a river. It won't compromise their drinking water. I don't think our law enforcement would arrest them for no reason.
90	Yes	I think I could listen to both sides and see the right and wrong on both sides.	No.
91	Yes	I don't have any skin in the game. I don't work for the pipeline and I don't live in Cannonball, North Dakota.	No. Just would like to see the whole thing get over with.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
92	It's just ugly and a mess.	Yes	I remember the candidate from the Green Party spray painting the machinery. I know that 90 percent of the protesters are from out-of-state. Some have gone to restaurants and walked out without paying for their meal.
93	Well, I've heard a lot of negative stuff from the media. Also, I've heard a lot against the protesters as well.	Yes	I witnessed it. I work at the State Capitol. The arrested were inside the building and they threw oil outside of the building. I think there is a lot is getting misrepresented in the media. The police are doing the best they can. The protesters are mostly from out-of-state.
94	I feel the media has been controlled by the professional protesters. All that you hear is about the abuse and even now they are saying no-one is helping them out with this blizzard even they were told to evacuate three weeks ago. The process of planning the DAPL has included the tribes. It follows an existing easement where there are	Yes	The worst crime was starting a pickup on fire and then a protester started the prairie on fire. They were harassing the farmers and their cattle, buffalo. I don't think they got arrested for that though.
95	Bad people, good people come in. It does not matter.	Yes	Trespassers. Most of them are staying on farmers' land, not the reservation. If they had given Archambault the money he wanted, this wouldn't be happening.
96	Quite a bit. There is something on the news daily. Activity has been going on. protesters have done to get the attention of the opposition and it worked.	Yes	One woman was arrested for threatening the life of a cop. Most of them are not from here. When arrested, the cops have no where to keep them so they put up fences and the protesters show videos and say they're being treated like animals.
97	It's on the news every day. protesters were told to go home. protesters are out of control. People are out of control. Not the local Natives but the protesters that were brought in.	Yes	Well, not too much but they're not saying too much. They arrest several hundred then suspend their sentence. Nothing is doing anything about it.
98	They are protesting because they do not want the pipeline to be built.	Yes	Well, I don't know any names. Locally, my friend has two large stores which have been targeted for protests. They've also been to his house.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
92	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	Yes	Mostly we want to give them the boot and get them out of here.	No	N/A
93	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Oh, we wish it was over and people would go home. I'm concerned because it's so cold down there.	Yes	I know protester. I haven't spoken to her since the protests began.
94	Yes	Yes	No	No	We talk about what they re doing and why. What really bothers me is they were supposed to leave but they didn't. That's after Obama stopped it at the river or lake.	No	N/A
95	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	We figure this way: When you protest, it should be the people who are involved and not out-of-towners.	No	N/A
96	Yes	Yes	No	Yes	People on social media have put things online and I have encouraged them to look into both sides. Saturday Night Live made fun of people who don't like protesters and that upset me.	No	N/A
97	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	Well, nothing is being done about it.	No	N/A
98	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	My friend from (store) has had protesters harassing him at home.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
92	Yes	I know oilfield workers since 5-6 years. I hauled oil for the pipeline once from the end of the pipe there.	No	N/A
93	No	N/A	No	N/A
94	No	N/A	No	N/A
95	No	N/A	No	N/A
96	No	N/A	Yes	My co-worker's husband is a cop. He has been working 24/7 and is afraid for his safety. My clients haven't been able to get to the dental office and my husband has been late to work at the hospital.
97	No	N/A	No	N/A
98	No	N/A	Yes	I know some of the police and ranchers. They've told me that some of their neighbors as well haven't been able to get out of their homes.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
92	2. Probably guilty	The only protesters I feel are guilty just from the ones I've seen on news video, they are clearly proven guilty. I've seen one pickup driver from the pipeline was pushed into the ditch and they lit his truck on fire
93	2. Probably guilty	They were arrested and they are also on Federal land trespassing. So, if they were arrested, there must be a reason for it.
94	2. Probably guilty	Well they showed a lot of them doing stuff on the news. They crossed barricades and they taunted the dogs with their sticks. This was early in the protests.
95	1. Definitely guilty	If they are trespassing, they should be out of there or are trespassing. Would you like to have strangers on your yard or land?
96	2. Probably guilty	I don't think law enforcement are going in and arresting people for no reason. They arrest people who are violent and commit crimes.
97	Don't know	N/A
98	2. Probably guilty	There is a lot of them that are in the wrong place at the wrong time. The woman from New York had part of her arm blown off. The protesters were throwing propane tanks but it was blamed on the police.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
92	No	N/A	No.
93	Yes	I probably could but I wouldn't be allowed for protests I've witnessed. Otherwise, 'm open to both sides of the story.	No.
94	No	N/A	no.
95	Yes	If they tell the truth. The I would believe them.	No.
96	Yes	I would try to hear both sides but it would be hard because the protesters don't know what's really going on. The pipeline is not really even on the reservation. It was before but they moved it. It is not going through burial grounds either.	No.
97	Don't know	N/A	I'm just fed up with everything.
98	Yes	I keep an open mind to hear both sides of the story.	No.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
99	Against putting oil pipeline in. They are scared about contamination to the water.	Yes	There have been over 550-plus protesters arrested and my husband is a public defender and he says over 90 percent of them are from out of the area. We're afraid there will be bloodshed.
100	I am in the oil and gas business. I feel there is a misconception about the pipeline. It's out of hand.	Yes	These are the protesters that came in and got arrested and they seem to be professionals.
101	They came here - then the protesting started. It was first about the native land. Then they went to the water table. Now, another study needs to be done.	Yes	The only way they were charged with a crime because they were committing a crime. They were from out-of-state. The Sioux Tribe wishes they would leave, those out-of-state protesters.
102	Basically, my thought - a few miles north of Bismarck - then they rerouted it to Fort Yates.	Yes	Most of them were from out-of-state. They set themselves up to be arrested. Therefore, the peaceful protest has been overshadowed and the tribal concerns have been minimized.
103	Seen on the news. There is so many different versions of what is happening. Confusing. Out--of-state ones paid to protest.	Yes	They say they are peaceful and prayerful which is not accurate. I go by it regularly because of my job. There is vandalism. Celebrities bring in people to jump on board and they typically distort the information. Also, the tribal chairman, I've been told, has ownership of a gas station in the Cannon Ball (Sioux County) area between Burleigh and Morton County.
104	More idiots are still down there. Hopefully, they all freeze to death.	Yes	I think they should spray them all with water and let'em freeze and go home. When that happened, it wasn't water cannons they used but just water hoses to put out the fire they started.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
99	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	About 95-96 percent of people agree that this is a lost cause for the Native Americans and it shouldn't have gone this far.	Yes	Some friends are part-Indian but they also have relatives that work for the pipeline.
100	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We talk about what has happened with the most recent confrontation.	No	N/A
101	Yes	No	Does Not Apply	No	The reason the pipeline didn't go north is because of all the millionaires up there. I suppose they used their money to influence the direction it went.	No	N/A
102	Yes	Yes	No	No	We talk about the manifest destiny of the Native Americans. They have gone back to peaceful, respectful ways of assembly. It's beautiful to watch.	No	N/A
103	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We're in agreement that it needs to be done and over with.	Yes	I know some people at the camp from my job as an educator. I travel there once a week.
104	No	No	No	Yes	Generally, we talk about it in the bar. And we all have the same opinion.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
99	Yes	Some friends have relatives that work for the pipeline.	Yes	I know a few policemen that have been out there every day. Some have been there for three days and during this blizzard.
100	No	N/A	Yes	Just friends with both first responders and landowner,. I don't want to say any more about that.
101	No	N/A	Yes	I know a police officer from Mandan and he has been down there and he has been on TV.
102	Don't know	N/A	No	N/A
103	No	N/A	Yes	I know people who have the pipe crossing their lands. I also know people related to police officers who have been antagonized along with their families by protesters. They have been taking pictures of their homes and ranches.
104	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
99	1. Definitely guilty	They aren't punished to the full extent of the law. They are trying to get them and in out from the court system to expedite and save money. During Black Friday, the Craigslist put an ad out to pay $50 to protest. They were all arrested for trespassing on private property.
100	Don't know	N/A
101	2. Probably guilty	Well there were a couple of out-of-state protesters teaching the camp how to get arrested. It was right on TV. They were also wrecking some machinery and blocking roads and right of ways.
102	Don't know	N/A
103	2. Probably guilty	I feel this way because of the tactics they are using. They started fires in the middle of the night. The county firemen had to go down to put them out. The protesters lit logs on fire and threw them. So, the police had to go down with rubber bullets and protect them. They also sprayed water from the hoses on them. But you never hear about what started the problems.
104	1. Definitely guilty	How many pipelines are going under the water right now? Seven are there right now under lake Sacajawea which feed the Missouri River. What's the difference if they add one more?

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
99	Yes	I like to analyze all the facts. I can be fair and impartial.	Outside interests came in and pushed the tribe to protest and brought in protesters and money for their own interests, their own agendas. I just wish it would get over and get everyone sent home.
100	Yes	I have an issue with this question. I'm 76 and got a notice to serve on a jury but I was rejected because of my age. I am every bit as intelligent and aware as any age group here.	I do want it to be solved as fairly as possible. It is sad and it is hurting our community. We do need the oil at this point in our history so it is important to transport it as safely as possible.
101	Yes	I'm kind of an honest guy. They've got their rights just like everyone else.	No.
102	Yes	I feel I could be impartial and fair because I'm used to reporting the facts as a reporter.	No.
103	No	N/A	I can separate myself from the facts but I'm fed up. I would recuse myself from a trial. Some protesters have brought their children and there is a large snowstorm going on. Fortunately, these kids are being kept at the school, so they get shelter and food but I'm afraid for these kids.
104	No	N/A	I am totally against the protesters, period. It is totally bullshit.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
105	There is two sides to the story. One side wants to build the pipeline and the other wants to save the water.	Yes	I actually work at a law firm and we have about 5 protesters represented. Over 500 were arrested. Most will get off for trespassing because it wasn't posted and it is public land which is the law in North Dakota.
106	They are paid protesters and they are not for the tribe. Just came to agitate their opposition, community and law enforcement.	Yes	That most were let go within 24 hours. Very few of the charges are still pending.
107	The protesters were not as peaceful as they portrayed themselves to the media. The protests turned violent. It was essentially high jacked by environmentalists and paid protesters.	Yes	Should have been a lot more arrested. They are shooting at ranchers, killing cattle and burning trucks.
108	There's not any real facts out there. There are stories behind stories and conflicting stories with protesters vs. national news vs. local news.	Yes	The judge says there is no evidence against over 100 cases. Threw all the cases out. The storm has affected it lately. There is less going on.
109	How a lot of people locally are upset. It's affecting them poorly. I support protesters and the constitutional right to protest. I am affected by the protests but still support the protests.	Yes	When protesters get arrested, they are harming themselves and then say law enforcement was over-aggressive.
110	The protesters don't want the pipe to go in. Water is life. They don't want to jeopardize that, I guess.	Yes	I heard they were attacking law enforcement; they were throwing homemade weapons and harassing law enforcement and trespassing on private property.
111	I've heard everything on the news and in the paper. The reason for protesting, the conflicts, the people standing up for law enforcement. Everything is the same.	Yes	The arrests are done mostly because protesters are trespassing. I haven't heard about individuals. I heard that a lot is the out-of-staters. I have a high level of respect for Native Americans. They are not being represented on TV. They're good people. People coming if from out-of-state are tainting that. I feel sorry for the way the natives are being taken advantage of.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
105	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Depends on the educational level of the individual/ lower educational levels have a negative aspect of the protesters. Higher educational levels are aware of socio-economic problems. We have five tribes and Standing Rock is the only tribe that cares about it. The other tribes have so much oil they want the pipeline. Most of my friends are highly educated so our conversation is a little different.	No	N/A
106	Yes	No	No	No	How long is it going to last? Will it get more violent?	No	N/A
107	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	They are all a bunch of idiots. Originally they were protesting peacefully. Then they brought in agitators and it got out of control.	No	N/A
108	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Everyone seems to be so divided. A lot of people are so worked up about it - very strong opinions on both sides.	No	N/A
109	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Rarely talk about it. It may come up now and then but nothing particular.	No	N/A
110	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	That we are very against the protest. We feel it has turned violent. Initially peaceful protest has been going on too long and became too dangerous.	No	N/A
111	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	Brother-in-law is married to a woman with part-native kids. Nieces married to sheriffs in Burleigh and Morton. It's a strain on the family, We talk about that. We have conversations about who is really funding the protesters. We have a conspiracy theory that the railways are giving money to keep the pipeline from going through. They benefit from it being stopped.	Yes	A lady I work with - her niece is active in the protests.

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
105	No	N/A	Yes	Ranchers I know have been losing cattle - a lot of cattle. Over $100 thousand worth.
106	No	N/A	No	N/A
107	No	N/A	Yes	A former classmate was harassed on their property. They were in fear for their life.
108	No	N/A	Yes	My sister's co-worker lives near where they are protesting. Someone urinated on their property.
109	No	N/A	No	N/A
110	Yes	it would be a family member.	Yes	Yes. All of the above. I have co-workers that are landowners. I have acquaintances in law enforcement - family friends.
111	No	N/A	Yes	Two family members working as sheriffs, one in Burleigh and one in Morton. One is assigned to the protest. He's part native. He had to get his family to leave when the protest went through Mandan and Morton City. The same family member had death threats on social media, I heard from my family member.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
105	3. probably not guilty	Depends on what level of crime it is. Trespassing - not guilty. Spitting on a police officer - Guilty.
106	3. probably not guilty	I think that things are said on both sides. I am not sure. Send them home.
107	1. Definitely guilty	Because I have seen what they are doing.
108	Don't know	I do not have enough information to make an opinion.
109	Don't know	I do not have enough information.
110	1. Definitely guilty	I think with the prevalence of social media and live video that you can see the events as they happen. Evidence is all over the media.
111	2. Probably guilty	Law enforcement is straight up. The conditions under which they are arrested are factual - trespassing and breaking the law. From what I read in the Tribune and seen on local news.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
105	Yes	Yes. I would never get drawn but I have trained in this and believe I would be impartial.	No.
106	Yes	I am not one way or the other. I could be fair and listen to both sides.	No.
107	Yes	I could be fair. I would look at facts.	No.
108	Yes	Because I am not obsessed with either way. If I had the facts and more information, I could be fair.	No.
109	Yes	I have not followed it closely. I do not have an opinion one way or the other.	No.
110	No	N/A	I would have a hard time being objective. I already have a preconceived belief.
111	Yes	My son was friends with a lot of Native Americans growing up and we know those kids well. My wife teaches in a middle school and sees the tough life they have. I give the benefit of the doubt to them. I have the ability to reason and see people as people and not to assign them to a label or box.	Moving oil over roadways is more dangerous from a safety standpoint. I do think the Natives are being exploited. My heart goes out to them. I know the culture My brother is a retired sheriff and knows many stories. The white man behind the scenes is funding this. There is definitely money behind it. It is not about the water. The Natives are getting money somewhere. it's big business and someone is profiting.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
112	The protest has gone to far. Variables all happened that don't need to happen. It's a state issue, not a national issue.	Yes	Some are taken in to the local police station. They weren't following the law, the rules, so they got arrested. Some of them have killed cattle - don't know if they were arrested. If they are going to protest, they'd better follow guidelines or be ready to be arrested.
113	I've heard about everything. Harm to the water and sacred burial sites are the main issues. Easement, Army corps, weather conditions, burning of automobiles, barricades, law enforcement, lies on the side of the protesters.	Yes	They get arrested and go to jail. Then they bail out and are free again. It's not doing much. Arrested for trespassing on property that doesn't belong to them. They are terrorizing with burning cars and tires on bridges.
114	It's a lot. It's been going on since September. I've been told that they are protesting where the pipeline is going through. It's a sacred burial land but their artifacts were moved more than 40 years ago. Native Americans were asked to come to meetings before it happened but refused numerous times then everybody started protesting. It's the paid protesters causing an uproar, disruption of our community and trying to create havoc in businesses. They try to get others to initiate a confrontation and then videotape it to make	Yes	it's gone too far. They are trespassing.
115	I heard about them protesting at Wells Fargo downtown. And the protests disrupted traffic, burned bridged. Pretty much interrupting the flow of everyday life. I wish they'd all leave. It's a pain to drive about 30 more miles to get around closed highways from burned	Yes	I don't know exactly what they were charged with. They protested around the federal Building. They burned automobiles and a bridge and attempted murder.
116	What I heard is that it is sacred ground for the Standing Rock Tribe,	Yes	I heard about a protester from Minneapolis getting her arm exploded saying our police threw grenades but it's not true. I saw video of her lighting the 'firearm' causing her own damage. Others shot at police officers. Peaceful is fine but getting violent, that has to stop. They protested on Black Friday in the mall with children going to see Santa. it's gotten out-of-hand and we just want our community to be safe again.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
112	Yes	Yes	Does Not Apply	No	Just how ridiculous it's gotten. I don't know what it will take to solve the problem. I don't know the answer and don't know all the details. Maybe, they have a valid reason for protesting.	No	N/A
113	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	Everybody is upset they are here. The out-of-staters need to go home and things will work out through the government.	No	N/A
114	Yes	Yes	Yes	No	It was OK to start out but it got carried away and went too far.	No	N/A
115	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	So many people are tired of it. It's enough. They're tired. They understand the Standing Rock Chairman feels it's gone further than he wanted it to. We all talk about safety - but we still think it's one of the safest ways to transport oil.	No	N/A
116	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We talk about the frustration of it all. We hear what everyone has heard - trying to get the facts straight. I'm hearing lies. We are so tired of it. Probably 90 percent want it over.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
112	No	N/A	Yes	Neighbor in police force. Friend, a landowner that was affected has buffalo and some are missing.
113	No	N/A	Yes	I know a couple guys in the National Guard who were called in.
114	No	N/A	No	N/A
115	No	N/A	Yes	For my work, I drive by there. I carried a firearm for my own safety on a highway that was blockaded. I was told to by an armored express truck driver who said that more were considering carrying a firearm.
116	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
112	1. Definitely guilty	I don't think the police force are hauling them in for no reason.
113	2. Probably guilty	I don't think they would arrest them if not guilty. They are not picking someone sitting there praying.
114	2. Probably guilty	They were in the wrong place at the wrong time.
115	2. Probably guilty	From what we hear on the media, harassment, blocking traffic, intimidation, things of that nature.
116	2. Probably guilty	If they get arrested, they've done something wrong. Going back to when it first started to get hairy, they were wearing masks. Why do that if it's peaceful? Then they damaged pipeline property. Cattle are missing and buffalo and horses are murdered. I don't know if it's Native Americans from here or outsiders but it's giving the Native Americans a bad name. So much media attention. Whoever is doing it should be held accountable. They shouldn't be damaging property if it's a peaceful protest.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
112	Yes	I'm open to both sides.	There are other pipelines under the river. Some of the things they've done - they've tied themselves to equipment - that's ridiculous. They are pretty adamant about what they are protesting against. I don't have all the details, so it's hard to understand.
113	Yes	I am open-minded. There are always two sides of the story. I would have an open mind and be fair.	no.
114	Yes	You base it on evidence. I could be fair and impartial.	The pipeline is engineered. There are others that are operating that have been beneficial. Why would this be any different?
115	Don't know	N/A	From all that's been portrayed, like everybody on trial, it needs to be in a different location to be fair with no personal ties. They have their side too. I respect that but the pipeline is the safest way to transport oil and if all safeguards are in place...
116	No	N/A	At this stage in the game, it's hard not to have a personal opinion about the negativity they've brought to our community. We're too involved - not that we wanted to be. The pipeline will happen regardless and as long as it's safe that's fine. We already have a ripe there for gas and power. They're putting it next to that. On social media, the protesters are posting inaccurate info. Paid protesters come in and get funded to get arrested to cause scenes.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
117	Tribe doesn't want the DAPL under Lake Oahe for water safety and they want to protect their sacred grounds.	Yes	They are arrested for assaulting police officers and spitting on them and throwing stuff at them. One of them shot at the cops.
118	Mostly what you hear is biased information from the protesters. I haven't been near the protests in person.	Yes	I think it's a bunch of BS. I believe it's all about greed. It's the tribe's land and if they don't want it built, they shouldn't have to put up with it.
119	I work for the media here in Bismarck.	Yes	Those that are not obeying the law should be arrested. There are a lot of outsiders coming in from other influences.
120	I'm not for it. I wish the hell they would go home - the out-of-state protesters anyway.	Yes	I don't think there has been enough arrests because of unlawful acts from the protesters.
121	The protesters are ridiculous because they had a chance to contest this early on during the pre-permit stage.	Yes	I think the media is totally biased. I think law enforcement is doing a heck of a good job. I think the Army corps is totally to blame for allowing these people on their land. The water intake has been approved to move upstream of the pipeline to protect the water.
122	The tribe said they didn't want the pipeline coming through that location. They claim that it is their land but it is disputed. The tribe refers to the Treaty of 1851, Fort Jeremy treaty.	Yes	Especially today, the crimes were mostly trespassing and some violence protests as in throwing Molotov cocktails. There is also the inciting violence against law enforcement agencies. These are claims from the local media.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
117	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	It's a hot issue. To be 100 percent honest, I'm not on either side. My dad works oil and gas so I know a lot that isn't posted. The pipeline had their ducks in a row. It follows other pipelines in the same corridor. If they knew how many other pipelines are in the North River, they would be shitting bricks. Oil spills are bad but there are a lot of safety measures in place to keep it from being drastic. Native Americans and protesters want a platform to speak out against the government. And now they have it. Some higher ups in the tribes don't want the protesters any more.	Yes	I met a couple that were arrested. They admitted they were in the wrong. They didn't stop when they were asked to.
118	Yes	No	No	No	The media is making it so one-sided and is reporting that it is so violent. And the townsfolk are ignorant about the facts here. It isn't violent. The protesters just feel strongly about this issue.	No	N/A
119	Yes	No	No	No	I pretty much talk about what we hear and see every day. I just talk with my husband about it.	No	N/A
120	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	A lot of it we discuss is what's going on currently. How to avoid the protest areas and about any latest stunts they are pulling.	No	N/A
121	Yes	Yes	No	No	All started out peaceful but now it's What the hell are people doing here from out-of-state? Native Americans aren't in that group which has been violent.	No	N/A
122	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	The theme of my conversation would reflect my opinion which I do not want to divulge.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
117	No	N/A	Yes	I know the guy who directs where the National Guard are going. My girlfriend's family live south of Fort Gates. They have to deal with it on a daily basis. Her mom is the accountant for the tribe and the funds that come in for the protesters come in through the tribe.
118	No	N/A	No	N/A
119	No	N/A	No	N/A
120	No	N/A	Yes	Some of my co-workers own land and are law enforcers and some co-workers are Native Americans who also own land down there.
121	No	N/A	Yes	know someone personally who was hired by Dakota Access for security. We haven't spoke recently.
122	No	N/A	No	N/A

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
117	2. Probably guilty	Probably guilty of something but they might have a trumped up charge. I have dealt with the court system and know that the cops will exaggerate the crime. Not a lot of crime in North Dakota, so they blow it up. Obviously, that committed some kind of crime because law enforcement isn't randomly going to pick people up and arrest them. They're not that unfair.
118	4. Definitely not guilty	What I have seen is nothing but large amounts of people protesting peacefully. I'm from California and this is not a violent protest. I've seen protesters turned away from food banks at the church. The people here are upset because it disturbs their routine. I say, So what!
119	2. Probably guilty	I'm basing it on prior information. Initially, the approach was straightforward and it changed after the outside protesters came in. It was about the tribes wishes first. Then the media and outside has changed it.
120	2. Probably guilty	They are probably guilty if they catch them on camera. It's cut and dried as far as I am concerned.
121	2. Probably guilty	Our law enforcement have been very lenient and if they arrest someone, they probably are guilty of committing a crime.
122	Don't know	Most cases will be dropped.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
117	Yes	it ain't a matter of what I know or hear. It's what's represented to the court. I can't bring pre-judgement. I think everyone should have a fair jury trial and I would base my judgement on the facts presented.	They got all the permits. They did what they were supposed to do. The Native Americans were invited to community meetings and they didn't show up and now they want to cry about it. Bottom line: It's the money they want - more money than they were given for the DAPL to come through the reservation.
118	No	N/A	(not fair juror) Because I would fight for what is right!
119	Yes	I tend to look at both sides of both issues before making a judgement.	No.
120	No	N/A	No.
121	No	N/A	No.
122	No	N/A	A lot of the residents feel unsafe and the protesters incite fear in them.

Number	3. What do you remember reading or hearing.	5. Have you read or heard anything about protesters being arrested?	6. What do you remember reading or hearing about arrested protesters?
123	It's on the news, in the media every day. That's about what I know what I get from the paper and Lester Holt on NBC.	Yes	The protesters were going into buildings they weren't supposed to. They were on the bridge with a burning vehicle. They were trespassing on land they shouldn't have been on.
124	I think it's senseless. I don't know, I don't think they're accomplishing anything or what they want to.	Yes	They say they want a peaceful protest then they go and chain themselves to equipment and vandalize that equipment.
125	Lately I've been listening to both sides of the story but just want it to get over.	Yes	If they are trespassing they should be arrested. I know they went on the construction site and spray-painted the equipment and chained themselves to other equipment.
126	There's so much going on and so much fallacy involved. They're putting their side of the story on Facebook and it's one-sided.	Yes	There were several of them arrested. They were throwing fire at the police and they got hosed down and frozen. They had a video of it on Facebook but they only showed the part where they got hosed not when they threw fire on the police.

Number	12. Talked to Family?	12. talked to Friends?	12. Talked to Co-workers ?	12. Talked to Other people?	12a. What did you talk about?	15. Do you know any protesters or their family?	15a. How do you know the protester or their family?
123	No	No	Does Not Apply	No	N/A	No	N/A
124	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We think the celebrities should stay out of it. People quit their jobs and get paid to protest.	No	N/A
125	Yes	Yes	No	No	I'm waiting for this thing to play out. Our main concern was they should have got this squared away two years ago.	No	N/A
126	Yes	Yes	Yes	Yes	We're tired of these protests. They are for the environment but are burning tires. How do we get rid of them is all we talk about.	No	N/A

Number	16. Do you know anyone who works(ed) on the DAP?	16a. How do you know this person?	17. Have you or anyone you know been affected by protests in any way?	17a. Please describe the connection you have with the situation.
123	No	N/A	No	N/A
124	No	N/A	No	N/A
125	No	N/A	No	N/A
126	No	N/A	Yes	A lot of my friends' son's are police officers and putting in a lot of time.

Number	20. From what you have read and heard do you think most of the protesters charged are (guilty) (not guilty)?	21. Please explain why you feel the protesters are (guilty) (guilty) (don't know guilt).
123	2. Probably guilty	Based on what I've seen on Clips with the reporters, I would say guilty.
124	1. Definitely guilty	They are on private land and blocking a public road. What's the sense of it?
125	2. Probably guilty	Most of the time the police have given them time to move out of the area but when arrested they are probably guilty of the crimes they were arrested for.
126	2. Probably guilty	Police officers aren't arresting them for everything so they are getting by with a lot of stuff. They are probably guilty for what they got arrested for.

Number	22. Do you think you could be a fair juror?	22a. Why is it that you feel this way?	23. Is there anything else you would like to add?
123	No	N/A	No.
124	No	N/A	No.
125	Yes	I have an open mind and if they could prove they didn't commit the crime and what not, that's about it.	No.
126	No	N/A	Get rid of them.
